SPEAKERS

Speaker: Charles Canaan, Senior Provider Education Consultant has over 30 years of diverse nursing experience in a variety of healthcare settings, to include inpatient, outpatient, home and organizational settings. His education includes a Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing from Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Virginia, a Master of Public Health Degree in Health Promotion and Education and a Graduate Studies Certificate in Alcohol and Drug Studies from the University of South Carolina, and a Coding for Health Care Professionals Certificate from Trident Technical College. He reviews medical utilization data and trends. He currently provides education and consultation to Medicare Part A and Part B providers with learning needs.

Speaker: Kathy Gaddis, MSW, LICSW, PIP is currently employed as the Director of Social Services, Mental Health and Community Engagement at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) 1917 (HIV) Outpatient Clinic. Kathy has a Bachelor Degree in Social Work from Auburn University and a Master of Social Work Degree from Florida State University in Social Work. Over the last 35 years, she has worked in private practice as a therapist, as a state consultant and trainer, a medical social worker and manager in the field of social work and mental health. The last 20 of those years have been devoted to people with HIV (PWH), social workers and mental health professionals who serve PWH. She has also worked in collaboration with community-based organizations to develop housing, nutrition, and emergency assistance programs for PWH. She has provided training and clinical supervision to a number of social workers over the past 20 years.

Speaker: Joanna Hawkins, MSW, LMSW is an employee at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) as a Social Services Supervisor for the 1917 (HIV) Outpatient Clinic. Joanna has been with the clinic since April 2018. Joanna has a Bachelor of Science in Social Work from the University of Montevallo and a Master of Social Work from the University of Alabama. Joanna has been working in a medical setting since graduating with her Master's in 2013. Joanna has volunteered and worked with agencies for People Living with HIV (PLWH) since 2009. In 2022 she was selected out of a highly competitive pool of applicants, to be a part of the HIV & Aging Scholars Program. Her project in this scholar's program was to implement a wide scale Advance Directive initiative for patients at the 1917 Clinic. Joanna is excited about new opportunities on the horizon at UAB's 1917 Clinic.
