Traveling the World: Experience the Cultures

Wednesday, October 9, 2024

Hospice care takes us to homes and facilities and introduces us to people with varied cultural backgrounds. Every encounter offers us an opportunity to enrich our lives and expand our experiences.

Sadly, there are many people with cultural differences who are underserved by hospice. Medicare encourages hospices to expand our horizons and provide care to these people who may fear hospice and medical institutions. Today's session will focused on the underserved.
